Jack Reeside Killed.

Jack Reeside, the well-known driver of the stage running between Pleasanton and San Antonio, has been killed. He was a brother of Mr. J. T. Reeside, formerly of the Hotel and Menger hotels, but now proprietor of the Pleasanton hotel.

Mortuary Report.

Hercules Vasquez, aged 40 years, died yesterday in the First ward of pneumonia.
William Wagner, nine months old, died to-day of chronic diarrhea in the Second ward. The child of W. T. Ross died yesterday and was buried this morning at 9 o'clock.

The Travis Park Band Pavilion.

The workmen have already commenced the erection of the new band pavilion to be erected in Travis park. The lot has been fenced with a sign of Messrs. Wahrenberger & Beckman's plans for the pavilion and is situated so that it will be a very handsome and convenient structure.

Immigration.

The following immigrants, carpenters, assistants and laborers, arrived yesterday:

Recorders' Court.

The following cases were disposed of in the Recorder's court this morning: J. Johnson, drunk, $5; J. Woodward, drunk, $5; P. Mc-Carthy, drunk, $5; J. Deiman, beating and striking, $5; Mike Barry, drunk, $5; Tom West, drunk, $5; L. Lovell, drunk, $5; Thomas Quinn, drunk, $5; Barbara Cane, using obscene language, $20.

Funeral of Mrs. Julius Hoyer.

The remains of the late Mrs. Julius Hoyer were interred by the side of her late husband in the city cemetery, and a large number of friends and acquaintances followed them to the grave. Considerable sympathy was expressed for the orphaned children, who have been dependent of the loving care of affectionate parents.

Working for Schickler's Monument.

The Schickler memorial committee met yesterday at Grant's store, and concluded to ask the particular friends of the late Gustav Schickler to limit the subscription list, and then to canvas the city. When this is done the committee will be informed in the counties.
Mr. E. J. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Kline, has been appointed to aid the committee.

After the Seducer Harris.

From letters received at the Light office it appears that Mr. Caleb Maule of this city, has gone to St. Louis for the purpose of seeking and reclaiming his daughter, Mrs. Dan P.
Smith, who eloped with Charles Harris, otherwise Mudd. He has gone armed, and as he has threatened to kill Harris, it is feared that if they meet a personal encounter of a serious character will occur.

Hotel Robbery.

Justice Adam this morning partly heard the case of the State against W. R. O'Neill, who is charged with having stolen three $100 bills and three $50 bills, the property of T. J. Smith, of Little Rock, which it is alleged was stolen while Mr. O'Neill and the accused were at the St.
Leonard hotel. Mr. O'Neill's evidence was taken and the case was continued. The alleged robbery is involved in considerable doubt and mystery.
